

Apples To Apples - Rules Variations

Second Opinion**

by Gwommy Anpurpaidh

Full Text Description

- The game plays out as normal (where the slowest non-judge player can't play a card for the round). If the judge has a hard time choosing which card is the best, then he/she may ask the player who was unable to play a card for that round and get his/her opinion.

Summary Of The Rules Differences

- The game plays as normal...
 - ...where the slowest non-judge player cannot play a card each round...
 - ...and the judge may make the final decision on the round's winner...
- ...but the judge may now decide to force the player who didn't play a card to decide the round's winner.
